Interview:

Z- Helo

B- Hi

Z- Can you please talk about yourself?

B- My name is Baurzhan and I am temshik. I could be your sponsor if your project will have good potential. Tell me about it.

Z- Our project is a arcade machine that will help to people lose their weight by playing games.

B- How does it works?

Z- People will have to step on right buttons on the floor in rhythm and gain scores.

B- What about gameplay?

Z- Buttons, that users will have to press, will come from bottom to top on the screen. It will be look like this:

B- Okay, do you have any sketches or prototype?

Z- We drawn sketches. Prototype will appear in future.

B- What is your main auditory?

Z- Our auditory is a people with obesity, with any age.

B- Do you think it will be interesting for kids and adults?

Z- We think yes, because kids generally like games with scores or ranks and adults may like listening music.

B- What about price of your product?

Z- We think about two types of distribution. First is a app and rug for playing and second is an arcade machine that will be placed in crowdy places like shopping centers. Game and rug can cost together about 35000 tg. Play one song on arcade machine can cost 300 tg.

B- Do you have team?

Z- Yes, my partner is Maidanbek Rasul from 9” C”.

B- What about logo?

Z- My partner drew sketch of logo:

B- It is very attracting, but I don’t understand letters.

Z- Title for our project is FeetFitDance. Things above letter” I” is a letter” E “. Do you have any expectations and edits ideas?

B- You should change logo. I think your project have big future. I will be your sponsor.

Z- Okay, thank you, goodbye

B- Goofbye
